BAD STOMACH
MAKES BAD BLOOD.

You can't make sweet butter in a foul churn. Every farmer's wife knows this. Your stomach churns and digests the food you eat, and if foul, torpid or out of order, your whole system suffers from blood poisoning. You will have foul breath, coated tongue, bad taste, poor appetite and a whole train of disagreeable symptoms. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is not a beverage composed of whisky or alcohol, being entirely free from intoxicants, is a great regulator and invigorator of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

"About a year ago I was ill with blood poisoning," writes Miss Eveline Louis, of 89 Walter Street, Buffalo, N. Y. "I had what seemed to be a small cold sore on my lip. It became very angry in appearance and began to spread until it nearly covered my face. I was a frightful sight and could not go outside the house because of my appearance. I used a blood medicine which did not give me any relief. Then I began to take your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I was greatly benefited with the first bottle and after taking the second bottle was completely cured. The erysipelatous eruption disappeared and my blood was cleansed. My complexion is clear and fresh and I have felt better this year than I did for some time before. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is certainly a most remarkable medicine."

Don't accept a substitute for a medicine which performs such cures and which has a uniformly successful record of nearly forty years to its credit. It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to try by over-persuasion to palm off upon you in its stead some inferior article with no record to back it up. You know what you want; it is his business to meet that want.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away $20,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Mannell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Nasal CATARRH
In all its stages.
Ely's Cream Balm

cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

THE RUSSIAN CRISIS.

The London Times, editorially referring to the terrible events of yesterday at St. Petersburg, says: "With our present information it is quite impossible to gauge the importance of these events. They would be grave at a moment when the country, whose capital they convulse, is engaged in great disasters of war at the farthermost extremity of Asia. They prove the existence of widespread and profound discontent among the working classes of St. Petersburg, for no socialist intrigue and harangues could have led thousands of workingmen to confront death unless they were convinced their lives under the autocracy had become unbearable. How far the discontent may extend throughout other cities of Russia and into the rural districts we have little means of ascertaining. The gravity of the situation depends on factors with which we are at present unacquainted." Such phrases as these extracted from editorial articles in the London morning newspapers, sufficiently indicate the opinion held of yesterday's events in St. Petersburg: "Revolt has been quelled, but—revolution begun. The bureaucracy has declared its policy; it is the policy of Blagovestchenk—massacre The inevitable reaction has begun, and with it a new chapter in Russia's history, and probably also in the history Europe and Asia. "The revolutionary movement in Russia has received its baptism of blood; its crown of martyrdom." "Is there a Mirabeau or even a Danton in Russia today?" A very grave responsibility lies today at the door of the Czar, who has failed to grasp his unique opportunity." "The 'little father' has become the murderer of his people, and it remains with him to save the country from disaster. Even at the eleventh hour he may do so, but only by recognizing that autocracy has gone forever."

It is pointed out that the fate of Russia does not depend upon the people of St. Petersburg alone, but on the masses throughout the country; and it is considered that the events of recent months connected with the agitation for constitutional reform sufficently attest the people's temper.

The news of the bloody events in St. Petersburg has caused a profound sensation in Paris. The newspapers issued special editions throughout the evening, giving dramatic details of the street fighting, and these were eagerly read and discussed in the boulevards, at the theatres and in other public places, the tragedy being the universal subject of comment The Temps' St. Petersburg special correspondent last night made a graphic comparison between the position of Emperor Nicholas II. and King Louis XVI. on the eve of the Reign of Terror. After a careful analysis of the situation, the correspondent concludes that most of the military forces of Russia will remain loyal to the Emperor, although he foresees prospects of some of the artillery regiments playing the same role that the regiment of the French guards took on the fall of the Bastile at the outbreak of the Freuch revolution. The correspondent also points out that Emperor Nicholas' withdrawal to Tsarskoe Selo places 21 kilometers between him and the excited populace.

MANIFESTO TO THE WORLD.

A sensational manifesto, signed by 117 of the most prominent men in Russian political, literary and scientific circles, has been published in the revolutionary organs of Stuttgart and Zurich, in the form of an address to the civilized world.

The signatures appended to the manifesto make it an important contribution to contemporary history. It deals with the events in St. Petersburg on December 11, on the occasion of the students' demonstration in favor of political reform. The manifesto gives the following account of the scenes:

"The demonstration began at 1 o'clock. A troop of mounted police rode out of a place of concealment to disperse the crowd. The students, who were singing revolutionary hymns, ceased and offered no provocation.

"The police, however, drew their swords and charged the students, slashing wildly right and left. When the students attempted to escape other police beat them with knouts.

"No warning was given to the general public and the streets were full of people. The police made no distinctions. They rode over everybody, whether connected with the demonstration or not. The dvorniks, or house watchers, were even more zealous than the police, belaboring harmless men and women with great brutality, knocking out teeth and tearing out hair.

"In one street a hundred police and dvorniks surrounded eight victims, some of whom were women. They threw one woman to the ground, stamped on her with their heavy boots and finally threw her with great violence against a wall.

"The bodies of wounded victims were thrown into sacks, in obedience to the order of the commanding officer, who directed that all evidences of cruelty should be removed with the greatest possible rapidity. The swords of the police were red with blood.

"A number of female students who had taken no part in the demonstration and merely desired to get out of the way sprang on a passing tramcar. A police officer saw them and sent a troop of mounted police in pursuit. They held up the tramcar, dragged off the terrified women, threw them violently to the ground and stamped on them with thick nailed boots.

"The officers encouraged their men by shouting: "Give it hot to the rebel dogs! See that they remember this day!" Several police officers ordered their men to hold girls while they struck them in the face or flogged them with knouts.

"Four policeman held a student while another slashed him with a sword. Dvorniks dragged men and women to cellars and backyards and treated them with atrocious cruelty.

"It transpired that the police made the dvorniks drunk before letting them loose against the crowd, and promised them liberal monetary rewards if they suppressed the demonstration effectively.

"A protest addressed to Prince Mirsky, Minister of the Interior, led to no result except a cynical reply, stating that the Prince could not be held responsible for the manners of dvorniks."

Proved Love for Wife.

Michael Youhs, a Polish coffee-grinder, quarreled with his wife at their home, in Williamsburg, N. Y., Friday, when she accused him of being in love with Annie Mearik, cigarette-maker at 172 Wyethe avenue.

"It isn't true!" said Youhs.

"It is!" insisted his wife.

"All right; I'll prove it to you," and securing a revolver from a bureau drawer, he left the house. In a saloon on north Seventh street he said to the proprietor:

"You'll see some fun in about 10 minutes, John."

Then he went to the home of Annie Mearik. The members of her family were eating. They spoke to him, when he walked quietly to the girl, placed the revolver to her head and shot her dead.

"I hated to do it," he said at the police station, smilingly, "but I love my wife, and it was the only way to make her believe it!"

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Calif, writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

No More Stomach Troubles.

All stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Erskine, of Allenville, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold by all druggists.

MONDAY EVENING, JAN. 23, 1905.

THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION, from present appearances, is "on" at last, and the snow in the streets of St. Petersburg is dyed with the blood of hundreds who had the temerity to assemble in front of the Winter palace yesterday. The right of petition being an exotic in far-away Russia, the Czar refused to see the multitude, the troops attempted to disperse the crowds, clashes followed and deadly volleys poured into the masses brought forth yells from the survivors and heart-rending shrieks from the wounded and dying, among whom were women and children. The curtain has at last been rung up on a tragedy which many are disposed to believe will be an attenuated and bloody act. The storm centre is now St. Petersburg, the capital of Russia. That it will move to Moscow and other cities and invade Poland and Finland is almost certain. Besides the example of the revolution will be far-reaching. Every nation in the world has more or less discontented and restless people. The success of the Russian revolutionists will embolden others, and the communistic and socialistic communication which is in progress between all countries may plunge Europe into revolution or anarchy. The red horse and its rider seems to be in evidence. It is not only in Russia where disorders are occurring. Those in that country however, are at present on a more colossal scale. Massacres are reported in Armenia. Kurds are being shot down, riots are in progress in Hungary, while minor disturbances are reported from all quarters of the globe, even on the Congo, where the natives have rebelled against foreigners. "In the last days perilous times shall come," are the sure words of prophecy; yet people are still dreaming that the world is on the eve of a millenium, while others imagine that a peaceful order of things is to be brought about by evangelical propagandas. Many have fed upon the illusion that the twentieth century would usher in an era when men would beat their swords into plough shares. There is no sign of the approach of such a deside.atum at present.

THE first move of the railroad trust, of which President Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania, is acting engineer, to defeat President Roosevelt's plan for railroad legislation, was disclosed in Washington last Friday. This move followed closly on President Cassatt's invasion Friday afternoon of the senatorial lobby, and was directly attributable to the numerous conferences which he held with those legislators of the upper house who have gained the designation "railroad Senators." A decision by the interstate commerce committee or the Senate to ask permission of the Senate to sit after the adjournment of the present session and take testimony of railroad men on the subject of rate and rebate legislation revealed the move planned by the railroad trust and executed under the directions issued Thursday by President Cassatt during his protracted sojourn in the senatorial lobby, In arriving at this decision the committee's action was informal. It is, however, equivalent to serving notice on the President that no legislation looking to the correction of rate and discrimination abuses is possible at this session of Congress.

REPRESENTATIVE HEPBURN'S bill giving the Interstate Commerce Commission authority to fix railroad rates and establishing a court of commerce to have jurisdiction over all rate questions was presented to the House on Saturday. It has the approval of the Administration, and will be passed by the House probably with no material changes. Railroad Senators declare the measure one of too great importance to be passed in a hurry, and they therefore decline to regard it as likely to receive consideration at this session, unless it is shaped to suit them. There are features in the bill, however, which indicate a decided friendliness for the railroads upon the part of Mr. Hepburn. The provision that rates fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission shall not become operative until sixty days have elapsed is decidedly in favor of the roads. It is pointed out that in all cases of special rates established in crop moving periods the sixty day's provision would enable the railroads to complete the particular traffic for which the rates were made before the action of the Interstate Commerce Commission could become effective.

A PROTOCOL between the Dominican government and the United States has been signed. The American government guarantees the complete integrity of Dominican territory, agrees to undertake the adjustment of all obligations of the Dominican government, foreign and domestic, and the conditions of payments, to adjust unreasonable claims and to determine the validity and amount of pending claims. The United States government will take possession of the Dominican custom-houses, and pay to the Dominican government 45 per cent. of receipts for her necessities. In other words the United States becomes again guardian for another—a very undesivable ward.

THE United Mine Workers in convention at Indianapolis Saturday adopted a resolution imposing a fine of double the amount of money illegitimately spent on locals, sub-districts, and districts using funds entrusted to their care. This is aimed to put a stop to locals giving clam bakes and other such events and misapplying national and district dues in payment of them. The convention also enacted legislation completely shutting out membership to all engaged in the business of selling intoxicating liquors, and members who are tending bar or who own saloons will have to withdraw from the saloon business to retain membership.

CONGRESSMAN SLEMP and the President agree (in certain cases) that federal officeholders should not be active members of political organizations, therefore Mr. Agnew retires from the chairmanship of the Virginia State republican committee and a son of the Congressman, a youth to fortune and to fame unknown, takes his place. Thus Congressman Slemp becomes the power behind the throne and virtually the chairman of the republican party in Virginia without resigning his seat in Congress!

AT THE instance of President Roosevelt, Mr. Agnew and the other federal officersholders in Virginia have resigned, the former as chairman and the others as members of the State republican committee. Those who have taken or will take their places will, to the man, use their positions to become officeholders; so, after all, it will be but swapping a devil for a witch.

MR. SLEMP, son of the Congressman, has been made chairman of the Virginia State republican committee, in place of Mr. Agnew. Now, what will he do with it?

Washington, D. C., Jan. 23

Mr. J. Taylor Ellyson, chairman o the Virginia State democratic committee, was at the Capitol today. He says he feels greatly complimented by the assurance of friends throughout the State of their support in case he should become a candidate for lieutenant governor of his State, but that he has definitely decided not to become a candidate for that position.

The proceedings of the House were interrupted in a sensational manner, at 12:20 today, Representative Pearre, of Maryland, falling from his chair to the floor. His colleagues went immediately to his assistance and he was carried insensible to the cloak room. Representative Hunter, of Kentucky, a physician, declared the case to be an attack of epilepsy. He said that Mr. Pearre would soon come out of the attack. The incident occasioned so much excitement on the floor that Speaker Cannon ordered a recess of ten minutes. Later Dr Hunter said that the attack was a nervous convulsion, not an epileptic one The patient rallied quickly and after an hours rest, was taken home.

Gen. Fitz. Lee and a delegation from Norfolk and Portsmouth are here to urge the passage of a bill for an appropriation for the proposed Jamestown, Virginia, Exposition.

Mr. William J. Bryan was the guest of ex-Representative H. St. George Tucker, in this city, on Saturday night, and of Representative Jones last night. Among those present at Mr. Jones's last night were Senator Daniel, Representatives John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, and Rixey and Lamb, of Virginia. In a little speech Mr. Bryan expressed the hope that the democrats in Congress would vote solidly to give the Interstate Commerce Commission power to regulate railroad rates.

Senator Smoot this morning resumed the witness stand for his third day of testimony before the Senate committee on privileges and elections. New witnesses arrived over Sunday, among whom were Senator elect Sutherland, successor to Senator Kearns, and former Territorial Governor A. M. Thomas, now postmaster at Salt Lake. Asked, "Are the apostles the mouthpiece of the Lord?" Mr. Smoot said: "They are when directed by the Lord only, but I understand that the President is the mouthpiece of the Lord whenever he speaks." Witness said that he had taken the endowment but once, and that before he was married. He denied that there was anything in the ceremony about "avenging the blood of the martyrs."

Prospects for an entirely new official family in the Postoffice Department after March 4th leads to general discussion as to whom Secretary Cortelyou and President Roosevelt will select to fill the four assistant postmaster-generalships, two of which are already vacant.

Developments at St. Petersburg are the most absorbing topic of interest this morning at the Russian Embassy, but up to noon Count Cassini and his secretaries and attaches were forced to depend for information upon the newspapers and bulletins reduced by the press associations no official dispatches having been received from the Russian Foreign Office. In an interview this morning Mr. B. de Siebert, the newly assigned second secretary of the Embassy who left St. Petersburg three weeks ago for his post in Washington, said the peril of the present situation for the Romanoff dynasty was discredited on the ground that the disaffection while admittedly grave will be confined to St. Petersburg and possibly a few other industrial centres.

Petition for a writ of certiorari in the case of Edward H. Harriman, Winslow S. Pierce, the Oregon Short Line, and the Equitable Trust Company, of New York, against the Northern Securities Company and the Northern Pacific Railway Co., was filed in the Supreme Court of the United States today. It is based on the equity suit brought by Harriman and his associates in the Oregon Short Line, by whom the stock of the Northern Pacific held by the latter railroad, was pooled in the Northern Securities Company in May 1901, to determine the present right of possession of the stock so pooled. In the equity suit, a decision of the Circuit Court in favor of Mr. Harriman and his associates was reversed by the Circuit Court of Appeals.

Petition for a writ of certiorari in the case of August W. Machen, George F. Lorenz, of Toledo, Ohio, Diller B. Groff and Samuel A. Groff against the United States, convicted in connection with the recent postal frauds, directed to the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, was formally presented to the Supreme Court of the United States today by Attorney Conrad Syme, on behalf of the defendants.

An expression on the St. Petersburg massacre was heard in the House today. Representative Baker (dem. N. Y.) moved that the House "to express its horror of the wanton massacre in Russia do now adjourn." The motion was voted down, Mr. Baker's voice alone supporting it.

The House committee on interstate and foreign commerce today decided to conclude its hearings on the bill giving to a government body supervision of freight rates on next Wednesday, and to take up the various measures pending before it in executive session on Thursday

Mrs. Robert J. Wynne, wife of the Postmaster General, is seriously ill of pneumonia at her home in this city.

Although the State Department denies specifically that it is establishing a protectorate over San Domingo, the difference between its military and financial receivership over that country and a protectorate is hardly appreciable to the layman. The action taken by whatever name it may be called, is however, welcomed by many of the diplomatic body who see in it relief from the troublesome conditions which have prevailed in their dealings with that island for many years. The State Department believes that European powers having claims against San Domingo will look with approval upon the action of the United States in assuming charge of the fiscal affairs of that country.

Martin says his sight was restored to him by a miracle through the agency of a woman, Miss L. A. Churchill, and Miss Churchill says it was the Divine Spirit working through her. Martin is the man who was hired as a substitute by the late Charles Broadway Rouss, the blind millionaire, to take all the treatments offered when he made his famous offer of $1,000,000 to anyone who should cure him of his blindness.

CONGRESSIONAL.

After a day devoted to listening to eulogies upon the late Senator Ingalls, of Kansas, and to the consideration of the bill making appropriations for fortifications, the Senate, just before adjournment Saturday, received from the House notification that that body had named managers to conduct the impeachment proceedings against Charles Swayne, U. S. district judge for the northern distict of Florida. The Senate adopted a resolution saying that it was prepared to proceed with the matter. The fortifications bill was read, and pending the consideration of an amendment to strike out the provision for insular fortifications the Senate adjourned.

The House passed the Indian appropriation bill.

The Russian Revolution.

Hundreds Shot Down in St. Petersburg—Women and Children Among the Victims—City Guarded by Fifty Thousand Men.

The long-anticipated revolution in Russia has begun in St. Petersburg, the fury of the working people being accused by the shooting down of hundreds of men and women who, led by Father Gopon, bearing a sacred ikon, were trying to reach the palace, confident that the Czar would see them and hear their appeals.

It was a Sunday of horrors in the Russian capital. Their march to the palace was cut short by bullets and the infuriated people, their faith in the Emperor shattered, cursed him and the autocratic government and started to riot and pillage. A general was killed and several other military officers wounded.

Gorky, the Russian author, says: "Revolution has begun in Russia. The Emperor's prestige will be irrevocably shattered by the shedding of innocent blood. The first blood has been shed, more will follow. It is now the people against the oppressors and the battle will be fought to the bitter end."

A member of the Emperor's household declares that the civil conflict will end the war with Japan and that Russia will have a constitution or the Czar will lose his head.

Minister of the Interior Sviatopolk-Mirsky presented to the Czar Saturday night the invitation of the workmen to appear at the Winter Palace yesterday afternoon and receive their petition, but the Emperor's advisers already had taken a decision to show a firm and resolute front, and the Emperor's answer to 100,000 workmen trying to make their way to the palace square yesterday was a solid array of troops, who met them with rifle, bayonet and saber.

There was a very dramatic scene at the Narva Gate when Father Gopon, in golden vestments, bearing aloft an ikon and flanked by two clergymen carrying religious banners, approached at the head of a procession of 8,000 workmen. Troops were drawn up across the entrance.

Several times an officer called upon the procession to stop, but Father Gopon did not falter. Then an order was given to fire, first with blank cartridges. The volleys rang out, but the line still did not waver. Then, with seeming reluctance, an officer gave the command to load with ball, and the next volley was followed by shrieks and cries of the wounded.

As the Cossacks followed up the volley with a charge the workmen fled before them, leaving about 100 dead or wounded. It was evident that the soldiers deliberately spared Father Gopon. One of the clergymen by his side was wounded, but Gapon escaped untouched and hid behind a wall until the Cossacks passed, and he was then spirited away by workmen.

The figures of the total number killed or wounded there, at the Moscow gate, at various bridges and islands and at the Winter Palace vary. The best estimate is 500, although there exaggerated figures placing the number as high as 5,000. Many men were accompanied by their wives and children, and in the confusion, which left no time for discrimination, the latter shared the fate of the men.

The troops, with the exception of a single regiment, which is reported to have thrown down its arms, remained loyal and obeyed orders. But the blood which crimsoned the snow has fired the brains and passions of the strikers and turned women as well as men into wild beasts, and the cry of the infuriated populace is for vengeance.

The sympathy of the middle classes is with the workmen.

If Father Gopon, the master mind of the movement, aimed at open revolution, he managed the affair like a genius to break the faith of the people in the Czar who they were convinced, and whom Father Gopon had taught them to believe, would right their wrongs and redress their grievances.

The military authorities had a firm grip on every artery in the city. At daybreak guards, regiments, cavalry and infantry held every bridge across the frozen Neva, the network of canals which interlaces the city and the gates leading from the industrial section, while in the Palace Square, at the storm center, were massed dragoon regiments, infantry and Cossacks of the Guards.

Barred from the bridges and gates men, women and children crossed the frozen river and canals on the ice by twos and threes, hurrying to the Palace Square, where they were sure the Emperor would be present to hear them. But the street approaches to the square were cleared by volleys and Cossack charges. Men and women, infuriated to frenzy by the loss of loved ones, cursed the soldiers while they retreated.

Men harangued the crowds, telling them that the Emperor had foiled them, and that the time had come to act. Men began to build barricades in the Nevsky Prospect and at other points, using any material that came to hand, and even chopping down telegraph poles.

Fighting meantime continued at various places, soldiers firing upon and charging the mob. The whole city was in a state of panic. Women were running through the streets seeking lost members of their families. Several barricades were carried by the troops.

Toward 8 o'clock in the evening the crowds, exhausted, began to disperse, leaving the military in possession. As they retreated up the Nevsky Prospect the workmen put out all the lights.

The little chapel at the Narva Gate was wrecked. On the Kaminostov Island all the lights were extinguished.

Every officer wearing the uniform of the Emperor who was found alone was mobbed. A general was killed on the Nicholas bridge, and a dozen officers were seized stripped of their epaulets and deprived of their swords.

It is rumored last night that M. Witte will be appointed dictator today, but the report is not confirmed. The authorities while they seem to realize the magnitude of the crisis with which the dynasty and the autocracy are confronted on account of yesterday' events, apparently are paralyzed for the moment.

Intense indignation is bound to be aroused all over Russia.

Broken windows and embedded bullets are found at long distances from the scene of the firing.

The rioters broke windows in the palace of Grand Duke Alexis.

The workmen last night were arming with every available weapon for a renewal of the struggle today. They have few firearms, but are improvising trade implements into weapons.

TODAY'S DISPATCHES.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—A municpal building in the second district was today demolished by rioters. Affairs are again taking on an ominous aspect. At a meeting of strikers at the Putoloff Iron Works, this morning, a resolution was passed expressing it as the intention of the strikers to continue the struggle to the last drop of blood. As this dispatch is filed, several hundred workmen are making for the public square. Reports received this afternoon state that several outbreaks have occurred in the Basil Island district.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—It is learned the greatest uneasiness is felt by the authorities, owing to the troops having given signs of insubordination. This disaffaction, it is said, is spreading among the crews for the third Baltic squadron.

London, Jan. 23.—The Rome correspondent of the Central News wires that a Polish noble, writing to the periodical Capitan Frassa, declares that revolution has broken out in Poland. The mobilization of troops, he says, has been rendered impossible there as the telegraph lines have been cut.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23 —The centre of the city remains quiet but there is ferment in the outlying districts. Late yesterday evening the police made a house to house visit warning the householders to maintain quiet. That rioting will break loose at any moment is a foregone conclusion. It was learned this morning that a band of rioters, the strength of which is not known, had decided to divide themselves into bands and sack the city.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—The government has decided upon the most stringent measures to check the populace today. All the streets of the city have been closed and in many places the water supply has been cut.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—It is reported the admiralty works at Sevastopol are abaze and burning furiously.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—The report that the admiralty works at Sevastopol are burning, is confirmed.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—The government has issued a report blaming the workingmen for yesterday's bloodshed. The demands of the workmen are described as audacious and impossible of fulfillment. Most of the responsibility is ascribed to Father Gopon, the leader of the strikers,

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—An official statement of casualties, up to 8 o'clock last night, estimated the dead at 76 and the wounded at 233. These official casualty figures are everywhere ridiculed. The lowest estimate, outside of officialdom, places the dead at 200.

Berlin, Jan. 23.—A dispatch to the Zeitung from St. Petersburg states that the casualties during the rioting there, so far, are 3,000 persons killed and 20,000 wounded.

Moscow, Jan. 23.—Everything is quiet in Moscow district today.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—The night was full of meetings of the workingmen, and policies were proposed and adopted which, if carried out, mean the breaking loose of a full grown revolution at any moment. Every street in the city is patrolled by troops, while in front of the palace, and at various approaches to the city, there are massed thousands of the Czar's troops, fully armed and ready to oppose any movement of the strikers of other cities toward the capital. The capital is full of the wildest rumors. One says the strikers have resolved to march 50,000 strong on Tsarkoe-Selo. If they find the Czar is not there, they will continue marching to Peterhof. Still another rumor has it that nihilists have persuaded the strike leaders to take over a large supply of bombs which are secreted at nihilist headquarters and use them to repel the troops. It is known the strikers have not as yet obtained any quantity of arms and this lack of ammunition is said to have been a strong argument for the bombs. A third report had it that the strikers had seized the Putiloff arsenal and were getting arms and ammunition from the source. This report is not confirmed and is not generally credited as it is known the arsenal would naturally be most strongly guarded by the authorities. The strikers are using their best endeavors to effect a concentration which the troops have thus far successfully prevented.

All traces of yesterday's conflicts have largely been removed. The authorities are not permitting any news of yesterday's massacre to be telegraphed from the capital to internal points of Russia. Few cities outside of St. Petersburg accordingly know what has occurred. Their only means of obtaining information is through travelers. The banks of the Neva this morning ring with the shipboleth of "Down with the autocracy. Long live the republic." In the midst of a street yesterday an aged priest, urged to visit the spot by his love for his flock, who were in danger of death, knelt in the street and offered a prayer for the salvation of his loved ones with hands raised to heaven, and with words of love ascending he was struck, tottered and fell dead

Small boys, like boys the world over, had rushed to the scene drawn by the excitement. In the list of those who fell may be found a hundred of these lads, who, though not participants in the awful drama, yet paid the penalty of their elders' frenzy.

Vienna, Jan. 23.—The Neu Frie Presse publishes a dispatch from St. Petersburg which states that martial law has been declared in the Russian capital. Under the provisions of this law, the authorities are empowered to arrest, place on trial, and prononnce sentence, including the death penalty, within six hours.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23. 2 p. m.—A crowd, which is moving toward the Winter Palace, is assuming threatening dimensions. The men have a most obstinate dismeanor.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—The Dowager Empress left for Tsarkoe-Selo this morning.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—The looting of shops in old St. Petersburg has been sternly repressed, but thousands of explosives have been stolen by the strikers from the Putiloff powder works.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—The report that Grand Duke Sergius, the Czar's uncle, had been assassinated, is untrue. Workmen attacked his residence, and broke all the windows. They were battering at the doors when troops appeared and dispersed them. The Grand Duke, at the time, was at Tsarkoe-Selo, with the Czar.

London, Jan. 23.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Westminster Gazette confirms the report that 12,000 strikers from the Capiloff Works, fifteen miles from St. Petersburg, started for the capital. They encountered a force of military en route, he says, and were defeated.

The correspondent also reports that a bomb was thrown into a regiment of Cossacks, in the centre of the city. He does not mention the list of casualties from the explosion, but states that all the machinery in the shop of the newspaper Novoe Vremya was destroyed.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—The executive committee of the Revolutionary League have appealed to the American, British, French and embassies asking them to bring foreign influence to bear on the Russian government in favor of conciliating the masses.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—A wild rumor has reached the authorities that Father Gopon, leader of the strikers, plans to burn the entire city of St. Petersburg, feeding the flames with immense quantities of petroleum. The rumor is given no credence, but the police have taken the precaution of prohibiting the sale of petroleum.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23, 4 p. m.—The workmen continue to march about the city in small groups. They are behaving quietly and no serious disorders have been reported. Scattered all over the city today are homes bereft of fathers, brothers, even mothers and little babes, all mown down by the leaden missiles of the Czar's troops. The blood of these loved ones is called to the peasants in no uncertain tones for revenge, and revenge will be fought until the last drop of blood.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23. 5:30 p. m.—Several thousand strikers of Basil Island attempted to cross the Nicholas and Palace bridges this afternoon, but were driven back by the cavalry. Workmen have torn up a part of the Tsarkoe-Selo Railway for the purpose of isolating the Czar.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23, 6 p. m.—The troops again fired on the crowds in the Nevsky Prospect this evening. The crowds became so thick the troops were unable to disperse them, and the order was given to fire.

It is rumored the Czar will tomorrow issue a proclamation placing the capital in a state of siege.

Sensational Meeting.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 23.—In one of the most sensational meetings ever held by Indianapolis socialists, Robert Randall, the Wyoming delegate unseated in the miners' convention, and expelled from the United Mine Workers because of his unproven sensational charges against Mitchell, made another attack last night on John Mitchell He repeated all that he had said before and in addition indirectly charged him with having had stolen from his valise the proofs that he had brought with him. This almost started a general riot.

Many miners jumped up and demanded a retraction. Randall did not do this, but also made an attack on William Dodds. Patrick Dolans and F. T. Robbins, president of the Pittsburg Coal Company. The convention today took final action, formally changing the organization from a national to international union. It is the intention to close the convention tonight. The miners endorsed co-operation, and urged miners to form co-operative societies and establish stories on the Rochdale system. The organization will retain an attorney to draft an employers' liberality bill to present to Congress and State legislatures.

Riots in Paris.

Paris, Jan. 23.—Riots occurred in the Latin quarter this morning. Socialist students started a demonstration in sympathy with the St. Petersburg strikers. Several hundred of them ran through the streets yelling their sentiments. At one point they met a band of nationalists and the two forces came to blows. A number were wounded, but none seriously.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Jan. 23—The feature of the stock market in the first half hour was heavy arbitrary selling of international listed American railway shares, particularly St. Paul and United States steel issues. The first mentioned stock sustained at the opening an exceptional decline of 2½ per cent compared with Saturday's final price, and other declines in leading railway shares ranged from ½ to 1½. By the end of the first hour rallies had occurred of ½ to 1½ per cent.

Do Not Suppress a Cough.

When you have a cough do not try to suppress it, but remove the cause. The cough is only a sympton of some disease, and the disease is what you should cure, then the cough will stop of itself. The most common cause of coughing is a cold. Anodynes will promptly suppress the cough, and preparations containing chloroform, opium, etc., are used for that purpose, but they do not cure the cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on the other hand does not suppress the cough, but relieves it by removing from the throat and lungs the mucus which obstructed the breathing and allaying the irritation and tickling in the throat. It also opens the secretions and effectually and permanently cures the cold as well as the cough. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

VIRGINIA REPUBLICANS.

The State central and State executive committees of the Virginian republican party met at the Hotel Carroll, in Lynchburg, Saturday night under the call recently issued by Chairman Park Agnew and disposed of considerable amount of business relating to party affairs in the State. Mr. Agnew's resignation was accepted, and C. Bascom Slemp, a son of Congressman Slemp, was elected in his stead. The contest between Snead and Allan for place on the executive committee from the Third district was decided in favor of the former.

The first business before the executive committee, which met first, was the contest from the Third district. Judge L. L. Lewis, of Richmond, appeared on behalf of C. P. Snead, who claimed to be a regular member. Edgar Allan, jr., who had been declared a member at the previous meeting, appeared for himself.

The statement of Judge Lewis appeared to impress the committee, and Mr. Snead was seated. All of the federal officeholders members of the committee resigned, and their places will be filled under the plan of organization of the party by the respective congressional committees.

When the central committee was called to order at 8:30 o'clock by Mr. Agnew, forty-four of the fifty members were represented in person or by proxy. Agnew vacated the chair, calling S. Brown Allen to preside, and he immediately handed his resignation to the secretary to be read. It was as follows:

Alexandria, Va., Jan. 21, 1905.

To the State and Executive Committees:

You have been called to meet at this time at the request of our Representative in Congress, that Hon. Campbell Slemp, and with the approval of others prominent in party counsels, for the purpose of formulating a policy for influencing and governing party action in the coming State campaign. The most important condition for a minority party, such as we are at this time, is that it shall enter a contest with its maximum strength. It has been frequently asserted by prominent members of the party that the present organization, through its chairman, was not aggressive enough, and that a different policy would bring much better results, and probably place our State in control of the party to which we belong. I do not believe that anyone of our political faith has a more earnest desire than myself for such a result. I have since my party called me to the position I now occupy, in 1897, to the present time utilized my best judgment, effort and ability, and such means as I possess for the upbuilding of republicanism in the State, and as my future course in all probability would be a reflection of the past, surrounded by the same conditions, and which does not and has not had the approval of those who contend that a campaign such as they would inaugurate would bring; therefore, in order that a trial of the claims of those who disapprove my policy may be given to the party, I have decided that, so far as I am able, I will contribute all I can to maximize our strength and to remove the criticism made by some of our prominent members, by handing back to the same representative body of the party who placed me first at its head in 1897 my resignation, to take effect at once.

In doing this I wish it to be understood that I am not influenced by any other motive than the hope that my action will bring good results, and that the new policy may make friends in Virginia such as its advocates claim that it will. So far as I know, I am not aware, and I do not believe, that I have the ill-will of any member of the party in the State, and I certainly know that I am entirely free in that respect.

I desire to express to this committee, and through it to the republicans of the State, my appreciation and thanks for the honor conferred upon me in the city of Lynchburg in 1897 and for a renewal of their confidence in the conventions of 1900 and 1904, in the city of Norfolk. I desire also to thank them for the kindness and loyal support which has been given to me during the years of my administration. It will be my effort to discharge my duty to the party in the ranks as I have endeavored to do in my official capacity. I sincerely hope that my successor may be able to meet the expectation of every member of the party, and that he will hold them together as a unit.

I pledge to my successor my help and cordial support to make his administration a success. Respectfully,

PARK AGNEW.

R. Taylor Gleaves, of Wythe, who placed Mr. Agnew in nomination for the position eight years ago, moved that the resignation be accepted. This was done, and the chair recognized Morgan Treat, who placed Mr. Slemp in nomination. A flood of oratory followed, in which a dozen party workers seconded the nomination. Mr. Slemp was characterized as a capable worker and organizer, the speakers predicting a great record for the new chairman.

The election was made unanimous, and Mr. Slemp accepted the honor in a spirited speech, promising to give his earnest efforts toward the success of the party in Virginia.

A resolution urging the party to make a fight in every county, city and town of the State for local offices, as well as for a General Assembly, was unanimously adopted. Then followed speeches by Campbell Slemp, Judge Lewis, C. A. Herrmans and John C. Blair, in which the speakers congratulated the party upon the personnel of the gathering, it being stated that it was the most representative ever held other than at a State convention, and predicting a great future for the party in the State.

A resolution offered by Mr. Keezell tendering Mr. Agnew the thanks of the committee, were adopted by a rising vote amid much enthusiasm.

The resolution was as follows:

Resolved, By the republican and State executive committees of Virginia, in session in the city of Lynchburg, Va., this 21st day of January, 1905, that we tender to the Hon. Park Agnew, our retiring State chairman a vote of thanks for his faithful discharge of the duties as State chairman during his incumbency; and we pledge to our newly-elected chairman, Hon. C. B. Slemp, the hearty co-operation of every element of the republican party in Virginia.

During the speech made by Mr. Slemp he made some reference to judge Lewis as the party's next nominee for Governor, but the Judge disclaimed having any such aspirations, saying he would prefer to fight as a private in the ranks.

The session of the executive committee was a secret one, though it was ascertained that the resignation of Thomas Lowry, from the Second district, was accepted, and Floyd Hughes was elected to fill his place.

The other office-holders who resigned were John M. Griffin, Fredericksburg; Seth Bolling, Petersburg; W. H. Mosby Bedford City, and Joseph L. Crupper, of Alexandria.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight, minimum temperature about 24°. Tuesday fair; light northerly winds.

Disorder on a Train.

Some excitement was caused on a south bound electric train Saturday night by the conduct of a colored individual named John Washington who, Conductor Travers alleged, refused to give up his ticket. Washington said he gave the conductor his ticket while the train was on the Long Bridge, and upon being asked for it near Arlington Junction got into an angry colloquy with the train crew. A conflict ensued, during which a window was broken and the darkey's head cut by a blackjack in the hands of Conductor Travers. Washington was finally subdued and placed under arrest. This morning he was fined $5 in the Police Court. Mr. L. H. Machen appeared as his counsel.

Revivals.

The protracted meetings commenced in the Second Presbyterian Church last Wednesday night will be continued this week.

A series of revival meetings are now in progress at the Free Methodist Church, south Lee street. There will be services each night during the week which will be continued for an indefinite period.

The revival meetings which have been in progress in the M. E. Church South closed last night. Sixteen new members were added to the church yesterday, and it is believed this number will be augmented.

The Fertilizer Company.

The new buildings now being erected by the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company are nearing completion. The exteriors are practically finished, but considerable work in the way of interior arrangements has yet to be done. The new structure has virtually been constructed over the old, and the manufactory has continued operations all the time. As has been stated, the company has purchased valuable property on the river front adjoining their works on their east, and the work of deepening the docks and building wharves will soon be commenced.

Suspected of Gambling.

It was the purpose of the police Saturday night to raid an upper story of a certain King street building, it being alleged that an interesting game of poker was in progress in the place. The front door, however, was locked, and when an alarm was sounded cards, chips, etc., disappeared and it is suggested bibles and prayer books were produced. Last night the door was open and the upper story brilliantly lighted, and it is supposed that had the officers entered they would have found nothing to indicate that games of chance were in progress.

Forfeited His Collateral.

Lawrence Bright was arrested by officers Beach and Sherwood Saturday night, charged with being drunk and disorderly. It was alleged that he went to the house occupied by his wife, on Duke street, and, when refused admittance, smashed the front door and several windows with his fist. His right hand was badly cut by the glass and he was bleeding profusely when arrested. He left collateral for his appearance in the Police Court this morning, but could not be found when his name was called.

Mr. Bryan to Deliver Address.

Hon. Wm. J. Bryan will deliver an address at the Opera House on Thursday evening next under the auspices of the Seventeenth Virginia Chapter, daughters of the Confederacy, for the benefit of the building fund of R. E. Lee Camp. Mr. Bryan's subject will be "The Value of an Ideal." Mr. Bryan had fully determined to deliver an address in Alexandria some time ago, but was prevented from filling his engagement by a death in his family

Struck by a Train.

An unknown colored man was struck and killed by a northbound passenger train of the Washington-Southern Railway at Seminary station, a short distance west of this city, on Saturday evening. The unfortunate man, it is said, was sitting on the edge of the platform when the train rushed past. The step of the tender struck the man on the head and scattered his blood and brains for some distance. A coroner's inquest was subsequently held.

Charges Against Justices.

Two justices of the peace (one white and one colored) will, it is said, be arraigned in Alexandria county in a few days on a charge of disorderly conduct and assault in a public house. It is said they were in a saloon when their conduct called forth a protest from a bystander. The latter was assaulted by the conservators of the peace, and during the melee the stove was overturned and the building set on fire.

Board of Supervisors.

A special meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Alexandria county will be held tonight at Del Ray to take action in reference to the steel highway bridge to be erected over a part of the new railway yards at St. Asaph as well as over the public highway. Mayor Paff is expected to be present to look after the city's interest, and a large number of residents of the county will attend the meeting.

Personal.

Mr. D. M. Bushong, of the Strasburg News, was in the city today.

Councilman Henry Baader, it is thought suffered a slight stroke of paralysis Saturday, which affected his left side. He improved considerably under medical treatment, and his condition is not regarded as serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Pollard announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Wallace, to Mr. A. B. Crane, of Washington. The wedding will take place in the latter part of February.

Will Probated.

The will of the late Mrs. Mary Smith was admitted to probate in the Corporation Court today. The deceased left her house on the west side of Fairfax street between Cameron and Queen to her three daughters, Mary Eliza Kelley, Fannie S. Williams and Emma Ballenger, and named Mrs. Ballenger as her executrix.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Washington, colored, arrested by Conductor Travers charged with disorderly conduct on an electric train, was fined $5.

Lawrence Bright, arrested by Officers Sherwood and Beach charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, forfeited $5 by failing to appear.

Andrew Lomax and John Speed, both colored, arrested by Officers Lyles and Allen charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were fined $5 each. Thomas Burden, colored, arrested by the same officer on a similar charge, was dismissed.

George King, colored, arrested by Officers Ferguson and Allen charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Meeting.

The committee, including members of the City Council, appointed to confer with Mayor Meyers, president of the R. F. & P. Railway with a view of improving travelling facilities between this city and Washing met at the Business Men's League room this evening.

The meeting had just been called to order when this report closed.

The Transfer Service.

The transfer service between this city and Shepherd's, it is now said, will be continued until the completion of the new union yards adjoining this city on the north. An order was issued abolishing the service on the 16th instant, but this was subsequently countermanded.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

Com. vs. W. O. Pollard, indicted for grand larceny in having stolen goods from a railroad train; case continued until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Yesterday was a quiet Sunday. The weather during the morning was fair and mild, but in the afternoon the wind blew cold from the northwest, and the heavens became threatening.

Mr. A. J. Devers lost between $38 and $40 while in a house on Cameron street last night. The police were notified this morning by the proprietor of the house and every exertion made to recover the money, but so far all efforts in that direction have proven futile.

At the Alexandria county courthouse Saturday the appraisers recently appointed by Judge Nicol to report the damages to the property of Misses Sarah and Mary Swann, due to the construction of the new railway tracks, decided that $3,500 would be a just amount if the railway company provides an outlet to the property, otherwise that the company must pay the sum of $5,600. The matter will now go to the Circuit Court again, where it will lie for sixty days before final settlement.

Mr. George W. Stearns sent to this office today a box of fried oysters, which were justly pronounced to be among the best prepared in this city. The bivalves were of superior quality and the cooking could not be improved upon. Alexandria has ever enjoyed the reputation of producing the best fried oysters. Mr. Stearns is located on St. Asaph street, between King and Prince.

Virginia News.

William C. Kelley, aged 30, one of the best known business men of Charlottesville died yesterday of consumption.

Mr. A. M. Simpson, the oldest citizen in Staunton, and probably the oldest Odd Fellow in the United States, is critically ill. He is ninety-five years old.

Mrs. Margaret Richard, aged eighty-five, widow of Henry P. Richard, of Frederick county, died at her home near Hayfield Friday night, after a lingering illness, due to the infirmities of old age.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cook, widow of Gile Cook, a prominent lawyer, well known throughout the Valley died at her home in Front Royal, yesterday aged 90 years. Death was due to the infirmities of old age. She was the oldest native born person in the county.

A telegram from Linares, Mexico, announces the sudden death of Rev. A. T. Graybill, who has been missionary of the Southern Presbyterian Church in Mexico for thirty years. He was sixty-three years of age. His aged father, M. Graybill, resides in Botetourt county.

Senator Martin has accepted the invitation to respond to the toast of "Virginia" at the banquet next month in celebration of the birthday of Charles Broadway Rouss by the Charley Rouss Fire Company of Winchester. Congressman H. D. Flood will also respond to a toast.

The U. S. Court of Claims Saturday forwarded to the Speaker of the House the findings in the claim of Elijah P. Myers, of Leesburg, against the United States government for damages sustained by him during the civil war. The original claim was $2,318, and the award $1,190.

Joseph B. Reid, of Brantsville, died at Providence Hospital, Washington, on Friday evening, aged seventy-one years. Mr. Reid was a Confederate veteran, having served in Company H, Fifteenth Virginia Cavalry, throughout the civil war. He represented Prince William county in the legislature in 1887-88, and had long been in the hotel business. After brief services at the residence of his son, Henry W. Reid, in Washington Sunday, the remains were taken to Manassas for the funeral and interment.

Because a ten-gallon can of gasoline was in a burning warehouse at the Miller Supply Company's big establishment in Winchester Saturday, not one member of the fire department would approach the place, and not until William Keating and Robert Smith, two of the company's employes, rushed into the house and dragged the hot can to a place of safety, were the firemen willing to risk fighting the flames. Keating and Smith were burned about the face. The fire was extinguished before it reached the main building, and the loss is covered by insurance.

Fifty-Eighth Congress.

Washington, Jan. 23.

SENATE.

The credentials of Senators-elect Frank P. Flint (Cala.); Lodge and Crane (Mass.); Beveridge (Ind.) and McCumber (N. D.), were presented. The oath of office was administered to Mr. Crane.

A bill was passed creating a new division of the eastern judicial district of Missouri.

HOUSE.

The House received word from the Senate that that body is ready to receive the managers of the House in the matter of the Swayne impeachment.

The House then passed a resolution for the employment of a clerk, stenographer and messenger for the managers, also for the payment of their expenses.

District of Columbia business was then taken up, the first bill being that amending the corporation law of the District. This bill was passed.

Mr. Baker, recognized by the Speaker, moved that the House, "to express its horror of the wanton massacre in Russia, do now adjourn." Democrats and republicans voted down his motion, his voice alone supporting it.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company and its men have amicably settled their differences and their will be no strike.

At a meeting of the congregation of the Peopagam in Rome, this morning, the very Rev. Thomas Hickey Vicar General of the diocese of Rochester, N. Y., was chosen coadjutor Bishop of the diocese with the right of succession.

Boehse's Hotel, at Baltic and New Hampshire avenue, Atlantic City, N. J., was destroyed by fire this morning. It was a big four story frame structure. A number of guests and Mrs. Carl Boehse, wife of the proprietor, were rescued with difficulty, having to be carried down ladders. A side of the building collapsed, burying several firemen underneath.

Man and Woman Asphyxiated.

George Neville and Vivian Vaun were found dead in a room of the house 1352 Ohio ave., Washington, yesterday. The two gas jets in the room were turned on, but other indications were strong enough to influence Coroner Nevitt to issue certificates of accidental death in both cases. Neville's parents live in Washington, but nothing is known of the history of the woman, except during the past two years. Neville and the Vaun woman were both married, and Neville's wife lives but a few doors from where her husband was found dead, and is known as Ida Wood. Neville was 24 years old. About two years ago Vivian Vaun, it is said, married a man named Powers. In connection with this ceremony she gave the name of Violet Bentley, and it is believed that was her real name. She was about twenty-three years old, and had been living south of Pennsylvania Avenue about two years. Whence she came no one is able to say. One report was that she had relatives in Alexandria, and another was that her home was in Connecticut.

Wife Divorced on Deathbed.

Samuel Sobel, a merchant in the Newark ghetto and an orthodox Jew, has been at the point of death for weeks. Friday he called the rabbis to his house, in Jones street, and had his wife divorced from him under the Jewish law, in order that she might not be under the obligation imposed by the orthodox law of marrying his brother after her husband's death.

Sobel and his wife have lived together happily. In fact, only husbands whose love for their wives is strong ever resort to this peculiar anti-mortem divorce. It is a very unusual thing, but not unheard of. Rabbi B. Hailperin, a leader of the Newark ghetto, has granted it once to the wife of a consumptive, and it is occasionally heard of in the East Side of New York.

Not a Candidate.

State Chairman J. Taylor Ellyson in Richmond Saturday night announced that he would not be a candidate for the office of lieutenant governor. Mr. Ellyson said he had received unsolicited assurances of support from all parts of the State, and had given the matter due consideration. The determination of Mr. Ellyson not to enter the contest leaves the fight for the honor between Messrs. J. R. Caton, of Alexandria; J. Alston Cabell, of Richmond, and Charles T. Bland, of Portsmouth, all members or ex-members of the House of Delegates.

The Metropolitan Magazine for February has been received, from its publishers in New York, among its most conspicuous contributors is Hon. Paul Morton, Secretary of the Navy, who writes of "Making Business Fighters for Uncle Sam's New Navy." In Courting Death Merrily in a Motor Car" Barney Oldfield tells of his sensations while riding at record breaking speed. The wilderness of northern Canada and its great fur trade is described in "The Way of the Wilderness." An essay on "London River" is illustrated with etchings by Whistler. "The World at Large" and "The Drama of the Month" are entertaining and instructive. The fiction of this number is good consisting of seven short stories by well known writers and an installment of a serial.

LEGAL NOTICES.

VIRGINIA.—In the Clerk's Office of the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, on the 23rd day of December, 1904.

E. C. Figgins vs. C. M. Campbell an Pauline Campbell, his wife. In chancery.

Memo. The object of this suit is to obtain a decree for specific performance of a contract for the sale of certain lots on the corner of Patrick and Mongtomery streets, in the city of Alexandria, to the complainant, E. C. Figgins, the said lots belonging to C. M. Campbell, and being described in the bill of complaint; and also to attach the interest of the defendents in the said lots to await the further and final action of this court in this cause.

It appearing by an affidavit filed in this cause that the defendants, C. M. Campbell and Pauline Campbell, are non-residents of this State: It is ordered, That said defendants appear here within fifteen days after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect their interest in this suit, and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, once a week for four succesive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court House of this city. MONDAY EVENING, JAN. 23, 1905.

MASSACRES IN ARMENIA.

The State Department has made public portions of an important report recently made by Dr. Thomas H. Norton, American consul at Harput, Turkey, on the results of a tour of investigation made by him, under instructions from the department, through the vilayets of Bitlis and Van, which were the scenes during several months last summer of repeated attacks upon and massacres of Armenian Christians by the Kurds and other elements of the Moslem population. These disturbances, attended by frightful atrocities and savage cruelty, resulted in death, suffering, and destitution.

The principal object of the visit was for the better protection of American interests there, and the timely arrival of Dr. Norton, it is stated, contributed to a peaceful termination. No Americans were known to have been injured. Dr. Norton says Mush is practically an armed camp, where Armenians are in constant terror.

He estimates that in the Sassun district 5,000 lives were lost in last summer's massacres, including 2,771 children. Several thousand refugees who fled to Mush were forced to return to their ruined villages, where the vilayet authorities made an allowance of one cent a day per capita for food. The question for a moment, he says, is what is to be done to save the surviving population of Sassun, numbering 10,000 or more, from the results of insufficient protection and insufficient food.

He speaks of the American schools and institutions, and says the missionaries have much prestige.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says: "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. Dewitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by all druggists.

All who use Atomizers in treating nasal catarrh will get the best result from Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including spraying tube, 75 cts. Sold by druggists or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren St., N. Y.

New Orleans, Sept. 1, 1900.

Messrs. ELY BROS.:—I sold two bottles of your Liquid Cream Balm to a customer, Wm. Lamberton, 1415 Delachaise St., New Orleans; he has used the two bottles, giving him wonderful and most satisfactory results.

Wounds

and sores of any kind, caused by any kind of accident, cuts, burns, scalds, bruises, sprains, etc., are best treated by the immediate application of

HAMLINS WIZARD OIL

This great, soothing, curative remedy relieves pain, reduces swelling and inflammation, and heals up all open wounds and sores. It is the one perfect, modern dressing, or treatment, for a wound. Its quick use will positively prevent blood poisoning. Always keep it at hand.

Says Mrs. Jessie Farris, of Elizabeth, Ky.: "My little boy was badly burned on both legs, which were so drawn out of shape that he could not even crawl. I tried many remedies without relief, but finally Hamlins Wizard Oil made a perfect cure, and he can now walk and run. We thought we should have to amputate both his legs, and feel that Hamlins Wizard Oil saved his life." Price 50c and $1.00.
